Greetings from the Organizing Chairman & Secretary

Greetings,

On behalf of the Department of General & GI Surgery, PSG Hospitals and PSG IMS&R we are pleased to invite you to Coimbatore. As you all know, PSG Surgicon has been a resounding success in the past and the present conference too is planned with the same objective of imparting surgical knowledge and skills in a highly focused manner. This year we have our objective focussed on endocrine surgery with live workshop on Laparoscopic and Open Thyroid, Parathyroid, Adrenal, Pancreatic and Metabolic surgeries. We have the experts in the field, at national and international level.

The international faculty include Prof. Paolo Miccoli, Italy and Prof. Martin K. Walz, Germany both well known for their work in laparoscopic Endocrine Surgery for benign and malignant conditions. We have planned to include the newer concepts, like Robotic surgery and Single port surgery in this conference through a live workshop and teleconference. We shall also be having lectures and symposia. We also included "hands on" courses in live animal models. We invite free papers for presentation in this conference. Needless to say, you will not feel disappointed in our effort to enrich you with the knowledge you desire to acquire through this conference.

Coimbatore is a very hospitable city and there is no shortage of entertainment for your family members accompanying you. We in the Department of General & GI Surgery and the organizing committee looking forward to seeing you in December 2011.
